Victoria and Kenji share a secret: the scars that cover their wrists. For Victoria, the days pass counting calories and trying to not let her sister make her eat more than what she deems sufficient. He lives hiding the marks of his past under tattoos and working day and night in a rock bar. Both are alone, isolated from the world... Until Kenji discovers Victoria in the bar's restrooms surrounded by a pool of blood. Everyone believes she has tried to commit suicide, because she is anorexic, because her boyfriend has just left her, because it just seemed inevitable. But nobody really understands her... until then. Victoria and Kenji move at the speed of life, and inevitably, they will end by finding each other.
