For the first time, the historical cafes of Spain and Portugal are the protagonists of a publication. Fifty living museums gathered together in a unique travel book. An historical, literary and human journey, illustrated with 330 photographs and contemporary documents. By means of an attractive design with an extensive graphic component, this volume introduces us into a singular atmosphere in which the clocks seem to have stopped, the conversation is rich and measured, and reading becomes a real pleasure. In these historical cafes we come to feel the nearby echo of Pablo Picasso, Valle-Inclan, Fernando Pessoa, or even Mick Jagger and Sara Montiel. The 50 HISTORICAL CAFES OF SPAIN AND PORTUGAL that appear in this route also represent a heroic story of survival. With a Prologue by Antonio Bonet Correa.
